

“It became very clear to me the program was nothing more than an educational opportunity; there was no hidden agenda.”

“When you know what’s going on, you can make better decisions for the future.”

GMRI is pleased to announce the following 2011/2012 training & convening opportunities for the commercial fishing industry. Please join us for one of these workshops, which are designed to bring together fishermen, scientists, managers and marine business professionals to explore topics of mutual interest.

October 19-21, 2011

Scallop Science Workshop

Port Erin Conference Center, Isle of Mann, United Kingdom

November 16-17, 2011

MREP 200 Science: Insights into Fisheries Stock Assessment

Coonamessett Inn, Woods Hole, MA

November 29, 2011

Cusk fishery explored: what are the research priorities?

Gulf of Maine Research Institute, Portland, ME

December 8, 2011

FishTank: What to do about Coastal & Marine Spatial Planning?

Mariner's House, Boston, MA

January 18-19, 2012

EMS Training: Increasing the Profitability of Your Fishing Business

Wiley Inn & Conference Center, Beverly, MA

February 28-1, 2012

MREP 100 Science: Introduction to Fisheries Science

Baltimore, MD (exact location & date subject to change)

March 20 - 22, 2012

MREP 100 Management: Introduction to Fisheries Management

Baltimore, MD (exact location & date subject to change)

March 29 - 30, 2012

MREP 200 Science: Insights into Fisheries Stock Assessments

Coonamessett Inn, Woods Hole, MA

For more information about each program or to apply, please visit our web site: www.gmri.org/community or contact Alexa M. Dayton at (207) 228-1645, email adayton@gmri.org or by mail at 350 Commercial St., Portland, ME 04101. A limited number of slots are available for many of these programs, so please contact us as soon as possible if you are interested in attending. Participant support and expense reimbursement is available in some cases, please inquire about eligibility.

Funding provided by:

