

SCIENCE & SUSTAINABILITY FORUM 2013

A Global Review on the Status & Sustainability of Fisheries

--OPEN NEW ENGLAND SEAFOOD INDUSTRY INVITATION--

MARCH 8, 2013 - BOSTON SEAPORT HOTEL & WORLD TRADE CENTER

Free Registration to hear key scientists at Science & Sustainability Forum review global, regional & US status of stocks and address misconceptions on seafood sustainability for seafood and public audience.

Friday, March 8th Global Review Fisheries Sustainability: World Trade Center Amphitheater

A global & U.S. review of fisheries from FAO, NOAA, Fishery Management Organizations, and top independent fishery scientists.

Friday Evening (5:30-7:30) New England Sustainable Seafood Reception For Registered Forum Attendees Only, So Register!

Join the Boston Fisheries Foundation (BFF) and Ocean Trust for a gourmet reception featuring sustainable seafood from New England. Come see why cod and other New England species are on our sustainable seafood menu.

Register through BFF or Ocean Trust by faxing your completed registration to (617) 423-6717 or emailing name/affiliation to: tjlassen@oceantrust.org.

Friday, March 8th Global Review Fisheries & Aquaculture: World Trade Center (9:00 – 5:00)

Global Trends in Sustainability Keynote (9:00 – 10:30)

Indroyono Soesilo, Director, FAO Fisheries and Aquaculture Use & Conservation, A Global Review

Ray Hilborn, University of Washington & Author of Overfishing: What Everyone Needs To Know

Regional Fisheries & Sustainability (10:30 – 12:00) Jorge Csirke, Peru Moderator

Moderator Preface, Global Perspectives on Sustainability: FAO & South American Perspective

Ross Shotton, S. Indian Ocean Deepsea Fishers Assn. A Tale of Two RFMOs (SIOFA/SPRFO)

Steven Hall, World Fish Center, Science & Sustainability: Perspectives from the Developing World

Sustainability, Overfishing & Management (1:00 – 2:00) Brian Rothschild, Moderator

Moderator Preface, The Overfishing Metaphor

Michael Sissenwine, Management Frameworks to Prevent Overfishing

Bill Fox, World Wildlife Fund, Science & Sustainability: Overfishing & Science of Tunas

Sustainability & Environment (2:00 – 3:00) Dick Beamish, DFO Canada

Moderator Preface, The Cost of Not Understanding Natural Variation in Fish Abundance

Steve Cadrin, UMASS Dartmouth/AIFRB, Stock Status & Overfishing in Changing Environment

Svein Sundby, Institute of Marine Research, Cod and Climate

Science & Sustainability of Selected Fish (3:15–4:15) Michael Crispino, ISSF, Moderator

Moderator Preface, Public Perceptions on Sustainability: Global Tunas

Kevin Sullivan, New Zealand Ministry of Fisheries, Chilean Sea Bass, Orange Roughy

Randall Brummett, World Bank, Sustainable Aquaculture, Shrimp, Feed & Coastal Impacts

US & New England Stocks (4:15 – 5:15) Steve Cadrin, AIFRB, Moderator

Galen Tromble, NOAA Domestic Fisheries, Sustainability of US Stocks

William Karp, NEFSC, Sustainability of New England Fisheries

Brian Rothschild, UMASS Dartmouth, Cod Stock Dynamics in Northwest Atlantic

Free Forum Registration As Ocean Trust/BFF Guest-Sponsorship Support Welcome@oceantrust.org

Name: _____ Company: _____ Email: _____

Return Registration by Email to Ocean Trust: tjlassen@oceantrust.org or Fax to BBF (617) 423-6717