BE SAFE AT SEA. FREE SAFETY & SURVIVAL TRAINING FOR COMMERCIAL FISHERMEN

OCTOBER 24TH in GLOUCESTER, MA

On Thursday, October 24, 2013, a free safety and survival training will be held at the U.S. Coast Guard Station in Gloucester from 7:30 AM to 3:00 PM. The hands-on training, sponsored by Fishing Partnership Support Services, is conducted by Coast Guard certified fishing vessel safety instructors.

The Safety-at-Sea training program includes:

- On-Board Firefighting
- Man-Overboard Procedures
- Flooding & Pump Procedures
- Flares & EPIRBs
- Donning & Using Survival Suits
- Life Raft Deployment
- Damage Control
- Emergency Communication/First Aid

Please bring your own survival suits. Training suits are provided for those who do not currently have one.

Pre-registration is recommended. Registration forms are available at:

- Mass Fishermen's Partnership office at 2 Blackburn Center, Gloucester, MA
- Online at www.fishingpartnership.org
- Contact Nina Groppo at ngroppo@fishingpartnership.org or at 978-282-4847.

Lunch will be provided courtesy of Ocean Marine Insurance Agency. We're grateful to the U.S. Coast Guard and the Massachusetts Fishermen's Partnership for supporting this critical training.
