

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 15, 2014

Contact Info: Nikki Chenard

Boston Fisheries Foundation

617-986-3573

nikki@bostonfisheriesfoundation.org

3rd Annual Boston Seafood Festival to celebrate 100th anniversary of Boston Fish Pier on the Boston Fish Pier Sunday July 27th from 11AM-6PM!

Boston, MA- Food vendors will be comprised of some of New England's favorite seafood dining destinations including Yankee Lobster, Barking Crab, Big Rock Oyster, Daily Catch, No Name and Captain Marden's Cod Squad food truck. Fried clams, scallops, lobster rolls, oysters, seafood chowder, smoked salmon, stuffed clams. Topping off the featured foods will be the Lobster Bake tent presented by the Boston Fisheries Foundation.

Famous local chefs to include Bill Bradley from the New England Aquarium, Jose Duarte of the North End's Taranta, Nick Calias of the Colonnade Hotel will be demonstrating their culinary skills alongside educational speakers and educators to include the American Heart Association, Northeastern University, Gloucester Fishermen's Wives Association, Save the Harbor Save the Bay and Massport. The Battle of the Shuckers fierce oyster shucking competition will bring together rivals of Legal Seafoods, Oceanaire Boston, B&G Oysters, Union Oyster House and Max's Oyster Bar.

Artists as well as an interactive children's area with KickinKitchen.TV and the TerraMar Project will be providing attractions for everybody in the family. General admission begins at $10, is free for kids 12 and under and tickets will be available at the entrance. Purchase your general admission, VIP and Premium tickets now at <http://bostonseafoodfestival.org>.

For more information or inquiries for a press pass for the event please contact Nikki Chenard at nikki@bostonfisheriesfoundation.org.

###